Dear Athletic Parents:

We have published here a handbook containing directions to the sites that our teams travel to for athletic contests. You will find directions to almost all of the places that we will need to go to this year (and even some places that we may not need to go).

In most cases, there are several possible routes to these sites. The directions that I have printed are, in my opinion, the best directions available to each place. They are the routes that I take when I drive to these places. These directions do not account for unforeseen problems such as: traffic jams, accidents, construction, etc. If you have a route that you like better, feel free to use that one.

All of these directions can also be found on the St. Paul web site. Go to www.saint-paul.org, and click on the “School” link, then look for the “Athletic Dept. Book of Maps” link.

If you have any questions, comments, or if I have left anything out, please let me know. Drive safely, and may God bless your travels!
